CONCLUDING REMARKS

Reverend Michael G. Krull
Public Program Chairman, NJCHRC

The Catholic bishops of New Jersey and Seton Hall University established the New Jersey Catholic Historical Records Commission in 1976 in part as an ongoing memorial of the nation's bicentennial and in part as a response to A Document on Ecclesiastical Archives, issued by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Commission's purpose is to research, preserve and publicize the story of Catholics and Catholicism in New Jersey.
